Work with an established and reputable local builder on a custom home created just for you, with the floor plan and features you want in the architectural styling you prefer.

Give us your budget. Our experienced team will design your custom home and provide architectural drawings and estimated costs, with no obligation or fee on your part.

Receive design expertise in a range of home sizes and styles, including contemporary, traditional Craftsman and our signature Colorado-inspired newwest.

Architectural interest, stylish interiors, sustainable quality construction and carefully chosen locations are trademarks of Markel Homes, and have been for four decades.

Put us to work.

Once we have an approved plan, we'll start building. This offer applies only to homes built in Markel neighborhoods. Go to MarkelHomes.com and find one you love.

Where you live influences how you live.

Our neighborhoods put you close to open space and trails, with mountain views, intimate parks, fresh architecture in a range of styles, and nearby shops, restaurants and services.

Experience you can trust.

For more than 40 years Markel Homes has been designing and building homes and creating livable, appealing neighborhoods in Colorado.
